

Formative Self Assessment

Name:	Unit:
Content Statement:	Date:

Level	Description
1	Insufficient Understanding: - little to no understanding of content statement - cannot identify and explain key vocabulary terms - cannot provide examples of content from past research
2	Basic Understanding: - minimal understanding of content statement - can identify and explain some key vocabulary terms - difficulty providing examples of content from past research
3	Proficient Understanding: - general understanding of content statement - can identify and explain key vocabulary terms - can provide examples of content from past research
4	Accelerated Understanding: - thorough understanding of content statement - can use key vocabulary terms in relevant situations - can provide examples of content in various forms
5	Mastery Understanding: - exemplary understanding of content statement - can use vocabulary terms fluently to describe content - learned content can be applied to other situations

What has been done to acquire the content information so far?

How comfortable are you with the content today? Use the numbers above and explain

What are your next steps to gain information on the content?

What is your summative plan to show mastery of the material?