

Name: _____ Period: _____ Date: _____

Perspectives Example Activities

Directions: Read each example scenario and put either an “I” if you think it is an interactionist perspective, an “F” if you think it is a functionalist perspective, or a “C” for a conflict perspective.

1. A student talks back to a teacher and the teacher disciplines the student.
2. A student talks back to a teacher and the teacher asks why the student did that.
3. A player is badly injured during a game and gives a thumbs up while being taken off the field to let the fans know it will be ok.
4. Labor unions.
5. The selecting of a boyfriend or girlfriend.
6. A divorced family.
7. Purchasing a Coach purse.
8. Oil tycoons in the Middle East.
9. Rolling your eyes when being lectured by your parents.
10. The collection of school photos throughout a student’s K-12 education.
11. The Legislative, Executive, and Judicial branches of our government.
12. The police.